If your watch or clock is out of repair take it to J. E. Zilhart.

Rock bottom prices on groceries at Wheeler & Gilliam's for SPOT CASH.

Jas. Orme, of Waterloo Kan., sends us a dollar to renew his subscription. Thanks.

Our good friend J. D. Humphreys, of Kingman, Kan., pays his dues to the Courier this week.

Take your boots and shoes that need repairing to Walter Dixon, one poor west of the city meat market.

Special inducements offered to cash customers at Wheeler & Gilliam's new grocery store. A call solicited.

We acknowledge the receipt of substantial favors from Mr. R. J. Wheeler, of Brookfield, since our last issue.

The newest, freshest and largest line of groceries in Keytesville, can be found at Wheeler & Gilliam's new grocery house.

Our young friend, R. A. Mann, who has been in New Mexico and Colorado for several months past, is expected home to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, of near Indian Grove, are happy over the arrival of a nice baby at their home on last Sunday, December 19.

Have your boots and shoes made to order by Walter Dixon, who guarantees satisfaction. Stop one door west of Thrash Bros. butcher shop.

Mrs. J. W. Wicks, of this city, left Monday night for Chicago, where she had accepted a position in Davis & Morse, a large retail dry goods house.

One of Clark township's jovial and fat stockmen, Joe K. Robinson, is feeding eight head of steers at Alfred Brown's, three and a half miles northeast of Keytesville.

Call and examine our line of overcoats and suits, and we will make you prices that cannot be beaten anywhere.

A. EMANUEL & SON.

Mrs. J. R. Myers, while returning from church Friday night, slipped and fell from the sidewalk and sprained one of her ankles from which she has since suffered much pain, but at present she is able to get about by the use of a crutch.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN. J. D. Butler desires to state to the public that he is still in the grocery business at the same old stand, and that he will sell staple and fancy groceries way low down for cash or produce.

E. B. Elliott, wife, children and Mrs. J. J. Mills arrived Monday night from Trinidad, Colorado, and will spend the remainder of the winter in Keytesville. Little Nadine Elliott was in poor health for some time before leaving Trinidad, and has been quite sick since her arrival here.

WE MEAN BUSINESS.

At those indebted to the firm of Messadams Brooks & Lowry are earnestly requested to settle their indebtedness by the 1st of January, 1887. By a failure to comply with this request your account will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

Respectfully, MESSADAMS BROOKS & LOWRY, 48 Keytesville, Mo.

On last Sunday Wm. Tillotson lost a fine and valuable mare from being gored by a vicious bull. Less than a year ago Mr. Tillotson suffered the loss of the mate of the animal which was killed last Sunday, the one a year ago receiving injuries in jumping a picket fence from which she died. Tillotson is a poor man and the blow of losing two such fine horses in so short a time falls heavily upon him.

We learn through Mr. J. W. Ashley, of Guthrie Mills neighborhood, of an accident which happened to J. W. Mitchell, his son, John, and Rev. C. Dewesse, all neighbors of Mr. Ashley. Mr. Mitchell has been erecting a new farm residence for himself. On last Saturday a week he and John Mitchell, two younger brothers and Rev. Dewesse were on a scaffold which was being used in the erection of the house, when the scaffold gave way, whirling the occupants to the ground. Mr. Mitchell and Rev. Dewesse were badly bruised and severely hurt about the back, while John Mitchell had his right arm broken. Neither of the younger Mitchell boys were hurt beyond a few slight scratches. The injured persons are doing as well as could be expected.

Christmas gift.

Go to Crowder, Salisbury, for photographs.

Mr. Wm. E. Hill Sundayed in Kansas City.

The photographs made at Crowder's gallery, Salisbury, always give satisfaction.

Solid gold rings in endless variety at J. E. Zilhart's, on the north side of Main street.

Misses Lottie Kuhn and Minnie Wilson returned from Carrollton Monday morning.

If you wish to keep the correct time, go and buy a watch or clock from J. E. Zilhart.

Don't forget that J. E. Zilhart's is the place to get bargains in watches, clocks, jewelry, etc.

We wish the COURIER readers a merry Christmas, and a happy, bright and prosperous New Year.

Call at Wheeler & Gilliam's and see those beautiful swinging lamps. They are selling them cheap.

Miss Minnie Iglehart, of Glasgow, arrived yesterday evening on a visit to her sister, Mrs. H. C. Minter.

Take your produce to P. W. Holley. He will pay you the highest market price in either cash or goods.

In hoods, fascinators, toboggan caps, nubbies, shawls, etc., etc. We have the largest line in Chariton county. A. EMANUEL & SON.

Rev. W. F. Bell, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, will commence a protracted meeting in Dalton, the first Sunday in Jan., 1887.

Parties desiring to put up ice can procure it for fifteen cents per load on the bank of the creek. F. HANSMAN.

On Monday night after the 1st Sunday in January Rev. Poole will commence a series of meetings at Westville.

Mott Jefferson, who resides in the southeast part of the county, made us a pleasant surprise yesterday.

Ladies call at A. Emanuel & Son's store and examine that large line of cloaks, in all the latest styles, such as boucle, Berlin, twill, English Glasse, etc., etc. Also a large line of short wraps.

J. T. Jefferson, one of our clever farmer friends who lives in the Allen school-house neighborhood, recently received intelligence from the pension bureau that he had been granted an increase in his pension.

NOTICE.

Rev. W. F. Bell will not fill his appointment at Centenary chapel on next Sabbath, Dec. 26, but will hold services at that place on the 2nd Sunday in January, as usual.

Take all of your eggs, butter, turkeys, chickens and all other country produce to George B. Oldham, Salisbury, Mo., who will pay you the highest market price in groceries, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, etc., at prices low down.

GEO. B. OLDBAM, Salisbury, Mo.

Ewing Long's farm residence, together with contents, two miles northeast of Mendon, was destroyed by fire last Saturday. The family were away from home at the time, and the origin of the fire is not known. No insurance. Mr. Long married Miss Willie Wheeler, a niece of our fellow-townsmen, D. N. Wheeler, sometime last spring.

Mr. W. S. Henderson and Miss Bettie Cravens, both of the vicinity of Salisbury, were married at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. T. S. Sinarall, in this city last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Countess extends congratulations, and trust that the most joyous hopes of the young couple may be fully realized.

BUGGIES.

I have three good buggies, a new spring wagon and a two-seated carriage, which I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder in front of the court house, on Thursday, January 6, 1887.

TERMS—A credit of 90 days will be given purchaser giving note with approved security without interest. J. W. WICKS, Keytesville, Mo.

PELTS AND POULTY.

Having rented the basement in the rear of the Farmers' bank I want all the hides, pelts, furs of all kinds, dressed chickens, turkeys, eggs, butter and all kinds of country produce that I can get, and for which I will pay the highest market price in CASH. Parties having large lots of poultry for sale will please call and see me before selling. I can and will pay you more for hides, pelts and furs than any other house in town can afford, and I will pay you the CASH. It will therefore be to your interest to give me a call. C. L. WHITE, Keytesville, Mo.

PLEASE RESPOND.

Having lost my all in the fire which destroyed my agricultural implement house, together with contents, and my blacksmith shop on Monday Dec. 6, '86, I would respectfully ask those indebted to me on note or account to come forward and settle and help me in my sad misfortune. I have been your friend when you wanted work and needed credit, and I trust that you, in turn, will pay what you owe me, as I need the money to rebuild my shop. Very Respectfully, J. P. TIFFERT, Keytesville, Mo.

FRESH OYSTERS.

Served in any style at Chas. Schell's.

For fine candies go to F. Hansman's.

Buy your cakes and candies at Hansman's.

Ladies, call on Chas. Schell for the best oysters.

When needing oysters, place orders with Chas. Schell.

The famous Bad Boy company at the Opera House, Dec. 28th.

A full stock of candies for the holidays at F. Hansman's.

Miss Etta Hayes, of the Forks, is the guest of Miss Winnie Moore.

Go to the barber shop over post-office, if you want a sea foam or shampoo.

P. W. Holley wants 5,000 dozen eggs, and will pay for them in either cash or goods.

Eld. J. E. Waller will preach at Westville next Sunday, Dec. 26, at 11 o'clock a. m.

As I am compelled to have money to meet my bills, I desire everybody knowing themselves indebted to me, on note or account, to call and settle at once. CHAS. SCHELL.

In boots and shoes we carry the largest line in Keytesville, and which are sold at prices that cannot be duplicated by anybody. A. EMANUEL & SON.

STAYED OR STOLEN.

From Keytesville depot on the 18th or 19th of November, 1886, a black mare with big ankle on left hind leg, and left hip knocked down. Any information leading to her recovery will be liberally rewarded by Wm. H. Wilson, Westville, Mo.

A stranger stepped into Henderson's drug store at Glasgow the latter part of last week and asked for some quinine. He was given what was supposed to be the drug wanted, and after taking whatever it was he went to sleep and was never afterwards aroused. A post mortem examination was held on the unfortunate man's remains, but we failed to learn its result.

We learned through Dr. Zillman, who was down from Indian Grove last Tuesday, that the remains of Wallace Nichols, a prominent farmer of the Mendon neighborhood, were brought home for interment and were laid to rest on the 29th inst.

Mr. Nichols was found dead in a hotel at Quincy, Ill., last Sunday morning under circumstances that lead to suspicion of suicide or foul play. We have not learned all the particulars and forbear making comment. Mr. Nichols was a good citizen, and moved here from Illinois shortly after the war.

Rev. H. B. Watson, of Glasgow, closed a series of impressive sermons at the Methodist church in this place last Tuesday evening. During the entire period in which services were held large congregations attended and gave good attention to the earnest words of the preacher. Brother Watson is a faithful watchman, and fails not to declare the last night of the meeting. Bro. Hurley, of Huntsville, who did efficient work as a minister here last week, was here Monday and Tuesday and was pleasantly greeted by his parishioners and friends. Bro. Watson returned to his home in Glasgow Wednesday morning, and will go thence to Huntsville Saturday to assist Brother Hurley in a meeting which begins next Sunday.

A full line of sugars and coffees and spices always on hand at Butler's.

Mrs. H. H., Master Krum and Miss Jennie May Kellogg and Walter Dougherty, of Paris, are visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. George Friesz has moved to his property, purchased of A. M. Hunter, and will soon be a full-fledged Keytesvillian.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle. At W. C. Gaston & Co. 2

Itch and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by Martin & Applegate Druggists. Keytesville, Mo.

On the 2nd Sunday in January Rev. Beavers, the new Methodist preacher on the Westville mission, will hold services at Westville at 11 o'clock a. m. and at Holloway school house at night.

Mrs. Bier, mother-in-law to J. C. Avers, and Mr. Avers little two-year-old daughter, 6 miles northeast of town, have been quite sick for the past two weeks, but are improving at this writing.

Uncle Calvin Furrow has returned from Kansas, and we understand, will assume the duties as landlord of the Dalton hotel until spring, when he will move to his farm, 6 miles northeast of town.

Don't forget that J. L. Potts will be on hand this Christmas with a full and complete line of clocks, watches, jewelry, silverware, etc., suitable for the holiday trade. Will have more to say next week.

Wm. Kuhler recently purchased of John Dorrance fifty-three head of steers, two-year-olds past, averaging 1215 pounds at 31 cents per pound, or $40 per head. The steers were of Mr. Dorrance's own raising.

Prickly Ash Bitters warm up and invigorate the stomach, improves and strengthens the digestive organs, opens the pores, promotes perspiration, and equalizes the circulation. As a corrector of disordered system there is nothing to equal it. 42

MONEY MONEY!

We would respectfully solicit those of our customers who are indebted to us on account to come in and settle as we need the money due us, and we trust you will show your appreciation of favors extended by settling at once. FENNEL & PARKS.

MARRIAGE LICENSES:

Tillman Scott and Miss Maggie Pierce; Wm. S. Henderson and Miss Bettie Cravens; John R. Norman and Miss Isabelle Anderson; W. M. Slaughter and Miss J. M. Riley; Wm. L. Critser and Miss Sallie A. Isle; E. J. Blackwell and Miss Emma Trueblood.

DON'T FORGET

That Wm. E. Hill wants that you owe him, needs the money and must have it. If you don't respond to this dun your notes will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. This is positively my last call. Wm. E. HILL, Keytesville Mo.

Married—In the recorder's office at the court house on Wednesday Dec. 22, 1886, Mr. Wm. L. Critser, of St. Joseph, and Miss Sallie A. Isle, of near Indian Grove. The ceremony was performed by Squire L. D. Isbell in his usually affable and winning manner, who is becoming quite an adept in tying matrimonial knots.

Booklen's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Sal Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chap Hounds, Chibbons, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by W. C. Gaston & Co.

The Xmas market, given under auspices of the L. A. S. P. C. at the Wheeler House on Tuesday night, was a success socially, financially and otherwise. The oysters, ice cream and cakes were dainty in quality and abundant in quantity. The numerous articles of fancy work were beautiful and useful and were sold at reasonable prices. Too much praise cannot be accorded the ladies who had the affair in charge, all of whom have just reasons to feel proud of their efforts. The proceeds amounted to about $60.

At a recent "shindig" at John Drew's, in Cockrell township, J. C. Griffin stabbed Wm. Chapman, inflicting an ugly gash on the left side, and a slight cut on the left jugular vein, which was fortunately not deep enough to result seriously. Subsequently Chapman swore out a warrant for Griffin's arrest. He was placed under arrest and on last Thursday had a preliminary trial before Justice Isbell, resulting in the "carver's" being bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $500. He could not furnish the requisite bond and was sent to jail.
